The software named above will hereinafter be referred to as the AMDIS2.71. You as the USER must accept this license agreement hereinafter referred to as the AGREEMENT before continuing with installation of the AMDIS2.71. This software and all other data in the installation is supplied "as is" and NIST does not warrant the performance or the results that you may obtain by using this software.

The USER is granted a non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to use the AMDIS2.71. The USER may make and distribute unlimited copies of the AMDIS2.71, as long as each copy made and distributed contains this AGREEMENT and the same copyright and other proprietary notices pertaining to this AMDIS2.71. You may not alter or modify the install program or create a new installer for the AMDIS2.71.

It is expressly understood and agreed that USER will not make any changes to the AMDIS2.71, nor permit any others to do so, nor distribute the program in any manner other than specified in this AGREEMENT. If any unauthorized copies are made, they will be treated as an infringement under Copyright Laws and a breach of the AGREEMENT. If such a breach occurs, NIST has the right to terminate the AGREEMENT.

NIST has used its best efforts to deliver a high quality copy of the AMDIS2.71 and to verify that the data supplied with the program have been selected on the basis of sound scientific judgment. However, NIST makes no warranties to that effect, and NIST shall not be liable for any damage that may result from errors or omission in the data or due to the program malfunctioning.

This AGREEMENT does not prohibit the USER from using AMDIS2.71 for the creation and redistribution of a USER DATABASE. Any USER DATABASES must use independent installation programs.

NIST does not in any way warranty the quality or suitability of any DATABASE created and distributed with this AMDIS2.71.
